

Bucharest highlights

Car rental Bucharest invites you to visit: The Sissi Spring

This monument-fountain was located on the main walk of the Cismigiu Garden, in front of the former mineral stand. It was built by sculptor I. Dimitrie Barlad in the memory of Sissi Stefanidi. Fountain with nymph and tritons

The fountain was cast in the L.L. Ducl metal works in Paris (1931) and placed in the "Tei Parc" in 1960. Eminescu Spring

Eminescu Spring marks the very spot where the national poet of Romania used to walk in the Cismigiu Garden. The G. Em. Lahovary Fountain

This marble fountain was ordered by Princess Zoe Sutu in the memory of journalist G. Em. Lahovary who was killed in a duel by N. Filipescu in 1897. The monument was saved from demolitions in 1987, and was brought back in its initial location, next to the "Sfantul Spiridon Vechi" church in 2001. The Fountain of Ministry of Agriculture, Industry, Trade and Estates - The mines and Quarries Division

The fountain is made of stone from the quarries in exploitation in Romania at 1906. It is one of the few monuments left intact from the first International Fair that took place in Bucharest. The location is in Carol Park. The Cantacuzino Fountain

The fountain was built in 1870, at the expense of major George Gr. Cantacuzino, for tapping the source that fed former Filaret Fountain. The Sarindar Fountain

The fountain was built on the location of "Military Circle" on the occasion of the first visit of Emperor Franz Josef of Austrian-Hungarian Empire. Romulus and Remus Statue (Lupa Capitolina)

Larcar Catargiu BLVD Bucharest

On the north side of Romana Square, Lupa Capitolina resembles the statue monument from Rome.

The Fire Watch Tower (The fireman Museum)

Bucharest - 33 Ferdinand BLVD; Phone: 021 252 28 84.

Built in 1892-1893 it is used for city observation and sounding the fire alarm. The Pilots Monument

Aviatorilor BLVD Bucharest

The monument is located between Victoriei Square and Charles de Gaulle Square, next to Kiseleff Park.

car rental in Bucharest with us!